

The children are taught a clear sense of right and wrong (E.g. Behaviour Policy, assemblies, RE lessons)

47 responses

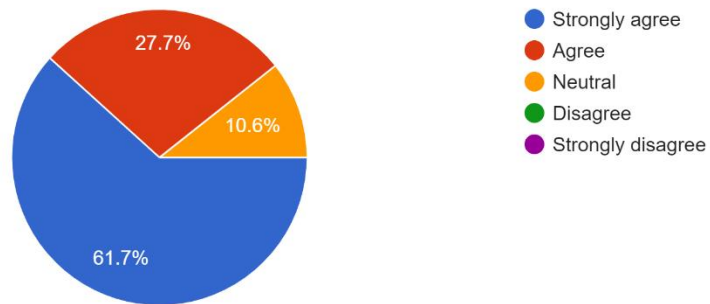

The children learn responsible attitudes to other people and situations (E.g. RE Lessons, Assemblies, Class Worship, RSE Lessons)

47 responses

I am happy with the Catholic education at this school

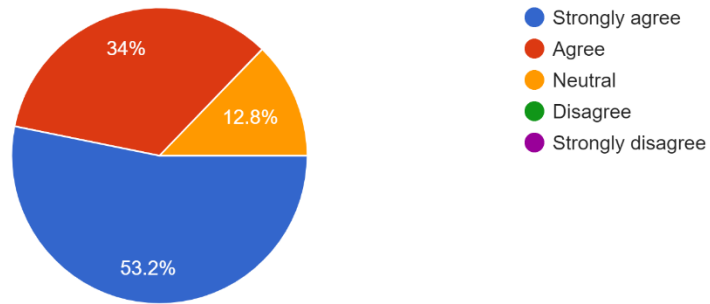

47 responses

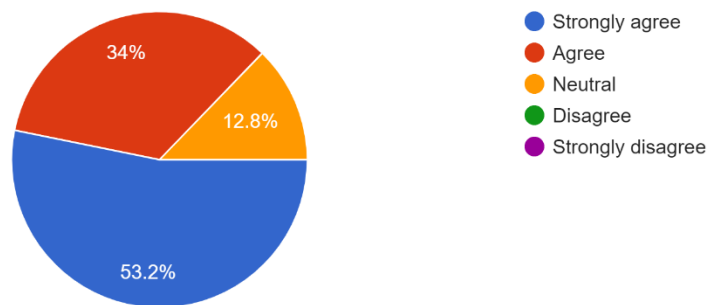

The children are given opportunities to help others and support those in need (e.g. Catholic Life Pledges as shown on school FB page)

47 responses

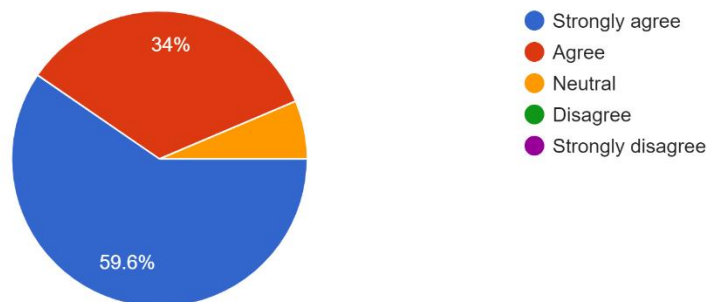

The children are given opportunities to help others and support those in need (e.g. Catholic Life Pledges as shown on school FB page)

47 responses

The staff care about the children

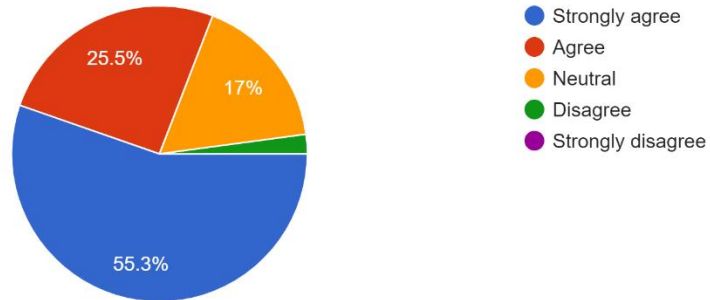

47 responses

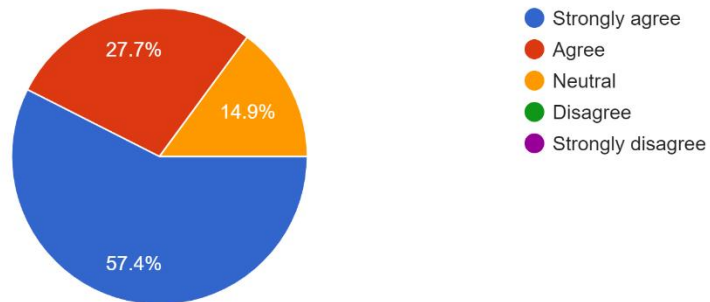

There are good links between the school and our local parish

47 responses

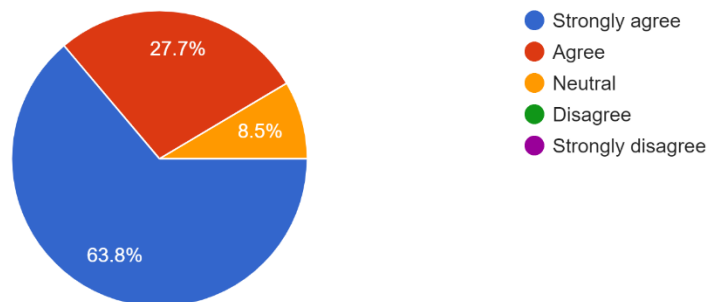

My child enjoys Religious Education in school

47 responses

I am happy with my child's progress in RE (E.g Annual School Reports, Parents' Evening, Dojo messages etc.)

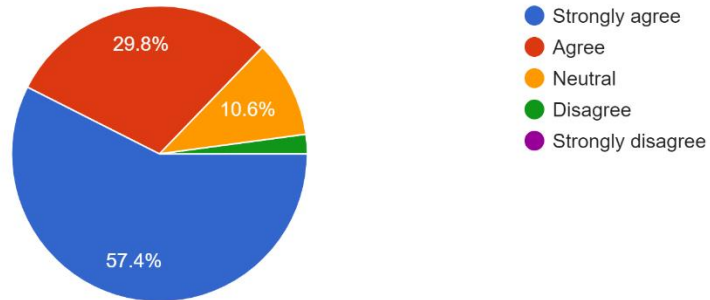

47 responses

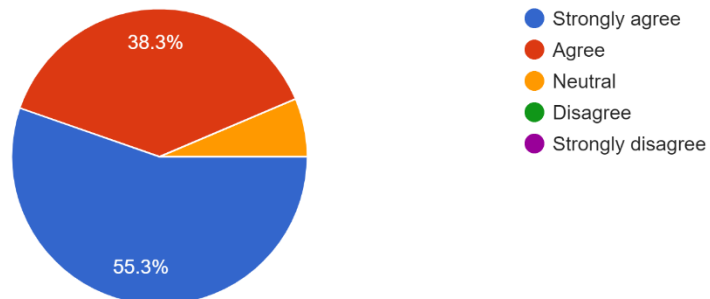

The school shows respect for other religions, through the curriculum and day to day life

47 responses

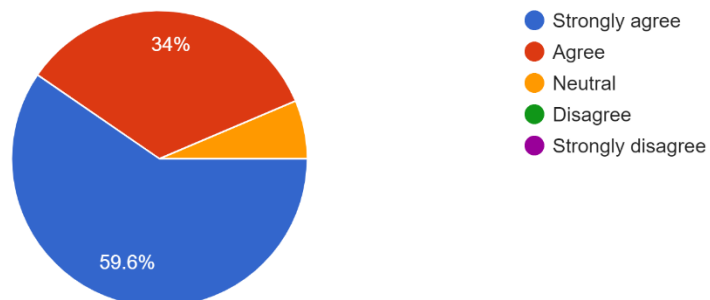

My child's spiritual life is nurtured and developed (E.g. School mass, assemblies, class worship etc.)

47 responses

The school ensures there are opportunities for daily prayer (E.g. morning prayer, prayer before lunch, prayer after lunch, home time prayer)

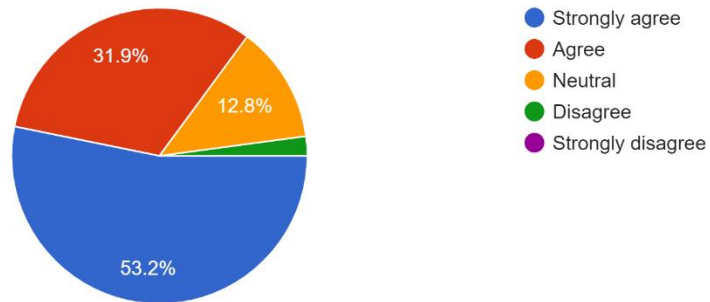

47 responses

I feel welcome and comfortable attending assemblies, masses and liturgies in school

47 responses

I am happy what the school is doing at the moment

Maybe creating a group of Parents Prayer Warriors or Praying Parents would help parents, teachers and children to join together to build a stronger faith and relationship with God.

The school goes above and beyond for its students and parents. I always feel that help is available when needed. The staff are always friendly and my daughter enjoys her school life

Nothing in regards to religious education